

SPONSORED LEARNING OPPORTUNITIES AVAILABLE

Where does the sponsors come from?

Haggai is a Skills Development Fund that operates by way of mandate/instruction received from business owners to fulfill specific BEE skills development strategies on their behalf.

Do you have to pay anything for the learning opportunity?

No, via Haggai, there is already paid for learning opportunities available to unemployed black people, even black disabled people.

What learning opportunities are available?

All qualifying candidates get enrolled for a unit standard aligned learning programme that is part of the Generic Management NQF level 4 qualification 57712/74630.

Edu 4 All FET College is facilitating the academic programme in all major centres across South Africa on an ongoing basis.

Open opportunities are still available for Johannesburg, Pretoria (Hamanskraal) and Pietermaritzburg.

Based on client mandate/ instruction and requirement, qualifying candidates then get an invitation for interview that could roll over into a 12 month learnership. A Learnership is a fixed term contract for 12 months, after the said learnership the client will decide if full time employment can be offered based on performance, client equity plan and operational requirement etc.

When do I have to attend classes?

All learning programmes is scheduled 1 day per week. Once you have enrolled you will be notified when and where to attend. The duration of each learning programmes varies, you will be notified of the duration once enrolled.

What if you don't get invited for in interview?

Don't despair, on a regular basis Haggai receive sponsored learning opportunities, we would like to extend these opportunities to candidates that have already enrolled and completed a learning programme on a first in first out basis.

This will ensure that you are every time you attend a learning programme you are indeed increasing your opportunity for employment, reason being from a business perspective , clients are always driving productivity, therefore candidates that has already progressed on the academic path of the said qualification is preferred.

Will I get a stipend?

Only candidates that are offered 12 months learnership contracts qualify for a stipend payment. This payment is made by the client that offers the learnership. Haggai only facilitate the learning programme roll out.

What is the qualification criteria for enrollment?

Candidates need have a matric certificate with Maths or Maths Lit.
